exceptional SPACES

Essays in Performance & History

Edited by DELLA POLLOCK

Contents

Acknowledgments, ix

Introduction: Making History Go, 1

Della Pollock

Part 1. Spectacular Histories

Slave Spectacles and Tragic Octoroons:

A Cultural Genealogy of Antebellum Performance, 49 Joseph R. Roach

Reading the Minister's Remains:

Investigations into the Death of the Honourable Minister

John Robert Ouko in Kenya, February 1990, 77

David William Cohen and E. S. Atieno Odhiambo

Performance as Contestation:

An Agonistic Perspective on the Insurgent Assembly, 98

Kirk W. Fuoss

Part 2. (Dis)Playing History

Performing Social Rubbish:

Humbug and Romance in the American Marketplace, 121
Ruth Laurion Bowman

Performing Southern History for the Tourist Gaze:

Antebellum Home Tour Guide Performances, 142
Michael S. Bowman

Part 3. Histories of Desire: Performing Sex and Class

Filthy — Nay — Pestilential: Sanitation and Victorian Theaters, 161 Tracy C. Davis

Touching Netherplaces:

Invisibility in the Photographs of Hannah Cullwick, 187

Carol Mavor

The Politics of Seduction:

Theater, Sexuality, and National Virtue in the Novels of Hannah Foster, 238 Jeffrey H. Richards

Part 4. The Museum in/as Performance: Raids and Reifications

Performance at Hull-House:

Museum, Microfiche, and Historiography, 261 Shannon Jackson

Museum Author-ity and Performance:

The Musée Gustave Moreau, 294 Elizabeth Gray Buck

Part 5. Producing History

That Was My Occupation:

Oral Narrative, Performance, and Black Feminist Thought, 319

D. Soyini Madison

Performing History in the Light of History, 343

Kay Ellen Capo

Notes on the Contributors, 387

Index, 389