

American Literature Before 1880

Robert Lawson-Peebles

Longman Literature in English Series

جامعة يومرداس
كلية الأداب واللغات
مكتبة الكلية
P96 رقم الجرد

جامعة يومرداس
كلية الأداب واللغات
مكتبة الكلية
821.11(73)/PEE الشفرة
0262 .

American Literature Before 1880

Robert Lawson-Peebles

PEARSON
Longman

Contents

Editors' Preface Acknowledgements

Editors' Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
1 The Problem of American Literature	1
The case of Paul De Man	1
James, Hawthorne , and the problem	3
The difficulty of American literary history	8
American exceptionalism	23
Songs of the earth's edge	30
2 A ProtoAmerican Literature, 800 BC to 1611	39
Beyond Atlantis	39
Viking settlement	46
The oriental impact	52
The Columbian complex	59
To the Virginian voyage	65
3 From Settlement to Revolution, 1607–1783	81
Virginia and the naming of New England	81
The varieties of writing in New England	88
The rising empire	109
The fall of the British American empire	120
4 The New Republic, 1776–1826	134
The age of Paine	134
Writing in a vacuum	139
Experiment and failure: Charles Brockden Brown	148
Transatlantic domesticity	155
Transatlantic difficulties: the early work of James Fenimore Cooper	161
5 Growth and Identity, 1812–1865	170
Transatlantic trifles	170
Fenimore Cooper and the follies of democracy	172
Yankee attitudes	181
Explorations of identity: Hawthorne	194
Explorations of identity: the fiction of Melville	204
The nation in flux: Edgar Allan Poe	214
Disunion and Civil War	223

Contents

6 Prospects for the Great Republic, 1865–1880	237
Battle-pieces: the aftermath of war	237
The local and the universal	241
E Pluribus Unum	248
A complex fate	254
 Chronology	265
 General Bibliographies	282
General histories/handbooks of America and its literature	282
Definitions of America and its literature	283
Thematic studies	283
Period studies	285
 Individual Authors	291
 Index	324
Longman Literature in English Series	341